Pooches on Parade

Man's (and woman's) best friend was the focus of "Pets and Picasso," a fundraiser and pet fashion show (presented by fashion-forward pet-boutique Lulu & Luigi) at the Hopkins Center for the Arts to benefit the center and the Greater West Metro Humane Society. Local celebrities and dog enthusiasts paraded their pooches in their Sunday best, and everyone in attendance was privy to horoscopes, caricatures of their favorite furry friends, and the services of a psychic.
